

“Tomorrow’s anointing”
Various Scriptures

Principle: The private anointing enables you to see what others can’t see and say what others are afraid to say and do what others can’t do.

Principle: The private anointing goes from strength to strength.

Principle: The private anointing operates in the realm of being yourself.

“But in fact God has placed the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be..... While our presentable parts need no special treatment. But God has put the body together, giving greater honor to the parts that lacked it, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other.” 1 Corinthians 12:18, 24, 25

Principle: The greatest opposition to tomorrow’s anointing will be yesterday’s anointing.

“Although he was a son, he learned obedience from what he suffered.” Hebrews 5:8

Principle: There is always a price to be paid for the anointing.

“Come all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost.” Isaiah 55:1

“You, God, are my God, earnestly I seek you; I thirst for you, my whole being longs for you, in a dry and parched land where there is no water.” Psalms 63:1, 2

Foundational steps to the anointing:

1. Hang around anointed people
2. Spend time in honest communication with God

“The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.” Psalms 145:18

3. Be filled with the Holy Spirit

“Do not get drunk with wine for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Holy Spirit.” Ephesians 5:18

4. Treat the anointing with reverence and respect

5. Spend time in praise and worship

“And when the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters, the water came up to my ankles. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through the waters, the water came up to my knees. Again he measured one thousand and brought me through, the water came up to my waist. Again he measured one thousand and it was a river that I could not cross for the water was too deep, water in which one must swim, a river that cannot be crossed.” Ezekiel 47:3-5
